HR and Management – Module V

This overview course will examine the role of the Human Resources Department as a strategic partner for managers and supervisors in the court. Key functions such as retirement, employee relations, performance appraisals, and labor relations will be discussed showing how they relate to the role of the court manager and supervisor. Learn how an MOU, Personnel Rules, and other HR resources can assist you and enhance your skills as a manager or supervisor.

If you need to complete Module II or Module V, and you are already planning on attending the Ventura Training Day on Saturday, April 4, this is a great opportunity for you to satisfy two module requirements in two days. Or perhaps you have a scheduling conflict, and you are not available to attend the training day on Saturday, then Friday's class may be a better option for you. Either way, here are two opportunities to meet the program's 2021 graduation requirement.

Managing Organizational Change – Module IV
will be offered at the Ventura Training Day on Saturday, April 4, 2020.

*Facilitator: Kristine Van Dorsten,
Senior Education Developer, CJER*

Emotional Intelligence: A Key
Competency for Successful
Leaders – Module II

To be a successful leader is to know and harness the power of Emotional Intelligence (EI).

Whether managing a change initiative, or supervising employee performance, tackling difficult conversations, or building relationships, participants will learn how EI is a critical competency underlying many leadership skills.
